A stone wall with a wooden sign that reads "YANGARO". The sign is mounted on a wall made of grey and tan stones. The sign is a horizontal wooden plank with the word "YANGARO" in black, uppercase, sans-serif letters. Below the text are five small, light blue circular accents. In the background, there is a wooden building with a stone base, surrounded by lush tropical vegetation including palm trees and other green plants. A forested hillside is visible in the distance under a clear blue sky.
